Part I Wednesday, Feb. 28

Part II Wednesday, March 7

As a teenager from a wealthy family, Francis was very superficial and self-absorbed.

He stole from his father to help restore a crumbling church near Assisi. How could a young man like Francis grow up to become a major reformer in our Church?

Part I Wednesday, March 14

Part II Wednesday, March 21

St. Catherine of Siena came from an ordinary family. Though she was uneducated and never learned formally to read or write, she was a counselor to popes and kings. Two Popes made serious decisions based on her letters to them.
